KRYS BOYD, MANAGING EDITOR OF KERA'S THINK, TO SPEAK AT FORT WORTH MUSEUM OF SCIENCE AND HISTORY

THE NEWS IN AMERICA: FACT, FICTION AND OPINION

Fort Worth, TX – As managing editor of KERA-FM's flagship midday talk show Think, Boyd will give an overview of American journalism- from the lead-up to the American Revolution through the age of Twitter, Instagram and "citizen journalism." Boyd will talk about the relatively recent expectation that the very best reporters should strive for objectivity, about why telling "both sides" of a story is rarely enough to tell it completely, and about the important difference between information and knowledge.

About the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History

Established in 1941 and accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History, anchored by its rich collections, is an institution dedicated to lifelong learning. The Museum engages children and adult guests through creative, vibrant programs and exhibits interpreting science and the history of Texas and the Southwest. The new $85-million campus opened in November 2009 marking the culmination of an extensive multiyear fundraising campaign. The Museum is open daily, except Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, and Christmas Day. For more information about the Museum, visit www.fortworthmuseum.org or call 817-255-9300.
