Museum Etiquette

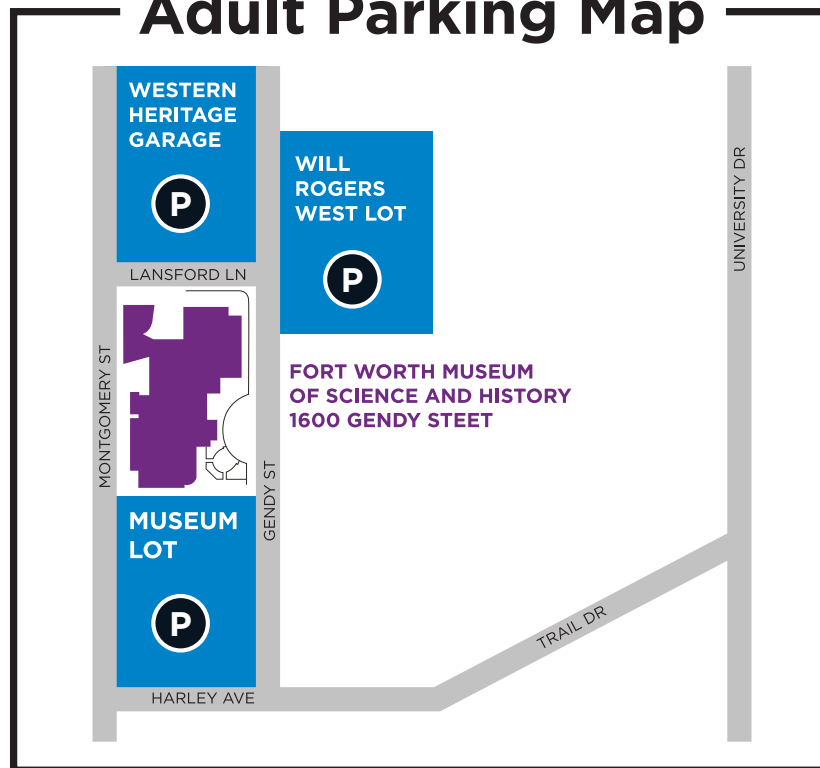

Your role as a chaperone is crucial for an extraordinary learning experience. To ensure this, we ask that all groups do the following:

- Be attentive to your students at all times and make sure their enjoyment is not infringing on the enjoyment of others.
 - Students should maintain their best classroom behavior while in the museum and theaters.
 - Do not allow students to engage in roughhousing, climbing, or running. The safety of all our museum guests is important.
- Chaperones are required to remain with students of ALL ages at ALL times. Chaperones are responsible for student conduct.
 - Please refrain from prolonged usage of any personal electronic devices during your visit as it limits your ability to engage with your students.
 - Be curious and engaged! Participate in activities and ask questions. Your students will appreciate your attention.
