Fort Worth Museum of Science and History Hosts Give Back Game Night

Fort Worth, TX - Forget the black tie and kick off the heels! The Fort Worth Museum of Science and History is hosting a fundraiser unlike anything you've ever seen before. Give Back Game Night on August 18 from 7 - 11 PM is a way to give back to our community through support of the Museum's mission of lifelong learning. You don't want to miss this opportunity to give while gaming the night away.

The Museum reaches over half a million students, teachers, families and lifelong learners every year. Many of these guests are able to experience the Museum through affordable field trips and interactive outreach programs. Funds raised through Give Back Game Night allow the Museum to continue to provide innovative educational initiatives and extraordinary learning to our community.

Now to the fun part... the games! Give Back Game Night will feature a wealth of games to delight every kind of gamer including video games, trivia, karaoke, pinball, virtual reality simulators, minute to win it games and more! The night is complete with a silent auction and cocktails.

Give Back Game Night general admission tickets are $30 and include one drink ticket. Want to amp up your fun?! Buy a VIP ticket for $50 which includes two drink tickets and access to a private VIP game lounge and bar. Sponsorship opportunities are also available. Learn more about Give Back Game Night and buy your tickets here.
