

LIFE SCIENCE LECTURE

You are never too old to learn! Have a Discovery Lab on Wheels educator visit your organization. These program focus on items from the Museum's life science teaching collection.

PRICING: $125 for each hour long lecture

Travel Fees may apply outside of Tarrant County.

UPCOMING PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

★ Cave Dwellers SEPTEMBER 2018

Participants will learn about animals that live cave systems and the adaptations they use to survive in low light environments.

★ Texas Symbols OCTOBER 2018

Learn all about some of the animals, plants and minerals that have been designated by the Legislature as symbols of the great state of Texas.

★ Desert Ecosystems NOVEMBER 2018

Participants will explore how animals have adapted to the harsh desert environment.

★ Fantastic Flyers DECEMBER 2018

Participants will explore the fantastic world of animal flight and how it looks different in birds, insects and mammals.

★ Dinosaurs JANUARY 2019

This lecture focuses on fossils, the different types of dinosaurs and some specific dinosaurs that have been found here in Texas.

★ Forest Creatures FEBRUARY 2019

Learn all about the amazing animals that make the forest habitat their home.

★ Pollinators MARCH 2019

Did you know that insects are not the only animals that pollinate? Learn all about the different animals that pollinate plants and the adaptations plants have to support them with the process.

★ What's For Dinner (Predators and Prey) APRIL 2019

Participants will discover what makes an animal either a predator or prey and how each is specialized for eating, hunting or avoiding predators.

LIFE SCIENCE LECTURE

UPCOMING PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS CONTINUED

★ Trinity River Ecosystem MAY 2019

Participants will learn about the animals that live in and around the Trinity River as it flows through Fort Worth.

★ Endangered and Threatened Animals of Texas JUNE 2019

Participants will learn about animals that have the threatened or endangered label, some of these animals, their current threatened or endangered status and what is being done to help protect them.

★ Magnificent Migrators JULY 2019

Learn about the fascinating world of animal migration and some of the animals that undertake this amazing adventure.

★ Bird Beaks and Beyond AUGUST 2019

Participants will learn about how different types of birds have adapted to their environments by looking at specific types of birds and their beaks and the types of food they eat.

★ Texas Seashore SEPTEMBER 2019

In this program, participants will learn about some of the fascinating animals that are native to the Gulf Coast of Texas.

★ These are the Animals in your Neighborhood (Urban Wildlife) OCTOBER 2019

Participants will learn about some of the most common types of urban wildlife and how they have adapted to living with us in our neighborhoods.

