Journey Back to the Future at the Mad Scientist Ball

Fort Worth Museum of Science and History's Annual Fundraiser is November 16

Fort Worth, TX - In celebration of 10 years in the Legorretta building and 70 years of Museum School, the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History is going back to the future at the Mad Scientist Ball on Saturday, November 16 from 7 to 11 PM. The annual fundraising event treats guests to an unforgettable night and financially supports the Museum's mission to engage our diverse community through creative, vibrant programs and exhibitions.

The Mad Scientist Ball features an all-star line-up of entertainers. Guests will laugh with Four Day Weekend, be amazed by the magic of Brian Masters and Anthony Dempsey and dance the night away to some fabulous music by Adrian Garza. The event's signature, awe-inspiring Mad Scientist experiments will take place throughout the evening. Guests can even soar high in a Lockheed Martin flight simulator or virtual reality plane and take a look inside a Delorean Time Machine Replica.

The very best of Fort Worth will be take center stage at the Mad Scientist Ball as the area's finest chefs and restaurants provide their signature dishes. Back Dough, Blue Mesa, Capital Grille, Fort Worth Catering, Abe Froman, Lonesome Dove, Luckybee Kitchen, Righteous Foods and Z Café have already signed on to ignite guests' taste buds with their delicious offerings.

Individual tickets and sponsorship opportunities are available for the Mad Scientist Ball. Individual tickets are $250 each or $100 each for guests under thirty years of age. Sponsorship opportunities start at $1,000. Learn more about the Mad Scientist Ball and buy tickets here. For more information on becoming a sponsor, please call 817-255-9349 or email msb@fwmsb.org.
