Have a Groovy Time at Science on Tap: Good Vibrations
Fort Worth Museum of Science and History Hosts Adults-Only Night

Fort Worth, TX - The science of sound and music will take your interactive experience to another level at the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History on Friday, April 13 from 6 - 10 PM. Science on Tap: Good Vibrations is a 21+ event all about grown-up fun with music in celebration of the Museum's spring traveling exhibit, GUITAR: The Instrument That Rocked The World.

Guests can tap into their inner child as they explore unusual instruments, learn how we feel and hear sound in the human body and wow the crowds with their best karaoke! Science on Tap: Good Vibrations will feature a variety of live music including dynamic Fort Worth duo Danni and Kris. Guests will also be able to explore the Museum's exhibits as they participate in hands-on activities.

Science on Tap: Good Vibrations tickets are on sale now! Tickets are $20 for non-members and $15 for members. Guests will receive one free beer, wine or soda per ticket when tickets are purchased in advance. To learn more about Science on Tap: Good Vibrations and buy tickets, click here.
