Fort Worth, TX - School is out and the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History is celebrating during Spring Break from March 10 - March 17! Grab an electric guitar and hop on stage in our new exhibition, GUITAR: The Instrument That Rocked The World! It's an experience you won't forget! There's something different every day in Innovation Studios and don't forget to check out the latest IMAX film, America's Musical Journey, with Grammy nominated singer-songwriter Aloe Blacc or go retro, with the Rolling Stones at the Max, a 1991 concert film produced by the Stones. The Museum will be open late daily until 6 PM, so get your groove on!
